At Your Library

A social story about visiting the C. Burr Artz Library
I am going to visit the library.
At the library I can look at books.
There are friendly staff who can help me find what I need. They are called librarians.
There are computers at the library. I can use them to look up books.
There are even special places where I can play and learn.
For storytime at the library, I go into a big room so I can move around.
I have fun playing with other children.
The librarian shows me how to dance with a scarf.
When I want to check out a book, I use my library card.
I can check out the books all by myself using a check-out machine.
I love the books I check out. Reading is so much fun!
